The Ruins of Columbia to Those of Portland.

BY FANNY DOWNING.

How feel you, toppled from your height,
And black and ruined with the blight
Which fire leaves, his signal stamp,
Where'er his crimson cohorts tramp?
How felt you when the warning knell
Upon your frightened city fell,
And women's shrieks and children's cries
Went pealing up the ensanguined skies?
How felt you when the fiery stream
Leapt madly roaring, while its gleam
Lit up pale faces, sick with care,
Or rigid in their dumb despair?
Ours is the right to question so,
For all that fire can do we know
By fierce experience,—fire whose birth
Sprang up from demons loosed on earth!
We looked upon a fearful sight
When on that bitter winter's night,
A brutal general gave command:
"Burn down Columbia." Sword in hand,
His ruffian soldiers forward sprang,
And soon the defenceless city rang
With cries and curses, prayers and groans,
And crashing roofs and falling stones,
And soldiers' yell of wild desire,
Commingled in a sea of fire,
Which hissed and blazed, and raged and roared,
As fast its molten torrent poured,
On church and convent, store and street,
In billows of devouring heat.
Far from the doom, they could not stay,
The afflicted Angels fled away,
While powers of darkness burst their chain,
And Sin and Satan reigned again.
Meanwhile they pilfered,—warriors bold,—
All that was precious, gems and gold,
And priceless pictures, books as rare,—
Wrenched jewels out of woman's ear,—
Snatched diamond rings from fingers slight,—
Took silken robes and ribbons bright,
Nay, stole, as many a mother knows,
Even new-born babies' tiny clothes.
Brave Knights! how high their pride must mount,
As they those doughty deeds recount
To listening school marms, and display
The trophies which they bore away,
Boasting their sonp,—these valiant loons,
Is better sipped from stolen spoons!
Some sights we saw to thrill one through,
And prove what woman's pride can do.
Composed amid such frightful scenes
Our women stood so many queens,
An' though their cheeks were wan and pale
Their flashing eyes made cowards quail,
And showed them, in their strength sublime,
The daughters of our Southern clime!
We saw the proudest of our land,
Beside their blazing mansions stand,
And with a scorn no words can show,
Hurl back defiance to the foe.
"Go on, vile wretches, steal and slay;
Our brave Confederates are away;
So you, who fly their sabre's flash,
Like howling hounds before the lash,
May war on women at your will
And wreak your fiendish malice,—still
The day of reckoning dawns on high;
Wade Hampton and his chivalry,
Will pay our debt!" They paid it well,
As many a Northern home can tell!
We heard the white veiled novice shriek
Within her convent cell, then seek
The Virgin's aid with stifled breath,
To 'scape from insult worse than death!
We saw old men, who frantic stood,
Their snowy locks besmeared with blood,
Striving to form a shelter frail
For some death-stricken infant pale,
Beat down and trampled by the throng
With mocking curse and obscene song!
And one we saw, who late had been
As pure as dew-drops, when their sheen
Decks the rosebud's pearly brow
With chrystaline perfection, now
A gibbering idiot, mouthed and smiled
And chattered like a little child!
Her brave boy brother near her lay,
Gasping his murdered life away.
We saw the priest struck to the ground
Beside the altar, while around
The ribald soldiery pressing up,
Filled high the Eucharistic cup
With sacramental wine, then drained
From hands with human blood all stained.
Would that the Savior's plea might win
Forgiveness of such heinous sin:
And for the accursed wretches plead
Their ignorance of each impious deed!
In vain the wish,—in vain the plea,—
Though drunken with demoniac glee,
They knew full well the work they wrought,
And knowledge fresh enjoyment brought!
Such sights we saw that awful night,
And yet from our exalted height
Of desolation we can throw
A pity for your puny woe,—
Contemptuous pity! All the fame
That Portland knows, from money came,
And all she lost by wreck or pain,
Mere money can buy back again!
Our loss,—Oh! God, what earthly ore
Our priceless treasures can restore!—
Ruins of Portland, keen the smart,
Yet ours is far the better part!
No grand, historic past is yours,—
No future glowing with the stores
Of glorious memories,—in decay,
You and your city pass away.
While, as the coming ages gleam,
COLUMBIA'S woes shall be the theme
Of song and story; bards shall tell
How the fair Southern City fell;
Fell but to rise and blaze sublime
A star upon the brow of Time!

JULY 14, 1866.

Bismarck's Personal Appearance.

The European correspondent of the New York World, who won quite a reputation as a spicy dashing writer during the war, says that when he applied to Bismarck for a pass, the latter stated that he had purposed leaving all such business to the discretion of the field commanders; but, said he, smiling, "when one has come so far, and from a people we like so well as the Americans, he shall have it."

The correspondent gives the fololwing free and easy sketch of the great Prussian's personal appearance:

"Barbaric in stature as in method, measuring evenly six feet two inches in height, and weighing not less than two hundred and fifty pounds, Count Bismarck is entirely a Prussian in physiognomy, and his port and strength are feudal in their imperiousness. Seated in an office chamber of the great Schloss or King's palace, with clerks in the anterooms, couriers in spurs at the hall, ready to carry his orders, a table before him filled with blanks, reports, and newspapers, and the light from the screened windows falling fairly on his seated figure, you behold, in common business dress, a man who might pass for fifty years of age, half bald, smooth of face, save a short and heavy moustache of grayish brown, that quite overlooks the hard-shut, ponderous mouth, and a nose of insignificant length, but broad and proud nostrilled. His flesh is in excess, so that around the eyes it is puffy and creased, and his short, stony, and undimpled chin drops a huge double fold upon his breast. His eyebrows are jagged; if they were heavier over those blood shotten eyes he would be terrible. At the back of his deep cheeks a pair of stiff bull dog's ears stand out to stop all the winds and their rumors, and his hands and feet, that are determined even in rest, are large enough to win a woman's censure. So dark that he looks freckled away from the light; so listful and yet so massive that he looks like a panther in granite, this man would better befit a baron's trencher, where his vassals eat and tremble, than sit here on the waxed floors of a modern palace doing desk duty.

I expected that he would remind me of Stanton, but he much resembled Butler. Stand General Butler on a chair to help his stature, prop his eyes open and give him power, and you have the nearest resemblance to Count Bismarck that I can think of among American leaders.—Near by him, on a rosewood table, lay a Prussian officer's helmet, and if he had put it on I think that Front de Bouf would have been before me in armor."

A CARD.

IT is proposed by the Philanthropic Society of the University of North Carolina to collect information relative to her Alumni and Members who participated in the late war. She has concluded, (as the most effectual way,) to address a Card to the Public, asking its assistance in this most praiseworthy undertaking.

The information desired is to embrace the rank and command of the individual; if dead, how and where; if wounded, in what battle, and if severely or not and if resigned, whether from disability or not. Information is particularly requested in reference to the class of 1859-'60, but an account of all classes is also wished.

The Society is convinced, unless a generous assistance is given her by the friends and relatives of those mentioned, that her attempt at compiling such material must be futile. She therefore earnestly requests each and every one, who is competent, and especially does she expect the hearty co-operation of her old and Honorary Members, to give the desired information, and at once, as half its value will be lost from delay in giving it.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Mr. Holden vs. Gov. Worth.

Mr. Holden's bitterness and ambition have brought him to his present position. Forsaken by all his former party friends, because of his political inconsistencies and demagoguism, he seeks to gather around him the malcontents and the disorganisers of all parties and factions, by his abuse of those who neither follow nor confide in him.

Gov. Worth, who, since his installation, has gone quietly along, regardless of Mr. Holden's attacks, as if no such man lived in the State, seems to be the object of his constant and unmitigated hatred. He abuses Gov. Worth because Messrs. Thomas, Lassiter and Caldwell have been removed from the charge of the Railroads, and because the Stockholders ot the Bank of the State have removed Mr. Moore.

The people of North Carolina believe that the original onslaught of Mr. Holden upon the railroads and the Bank of the State was a movement of his own; that he planned and dictated it, or suggested it to the President, and that he was prompted by malice against Messrs. Hawkins, Whitford, Powell, Webb and Mordecai in their removal. It was no part of President Johnson's general policy, and was not practised in any other State.

No sound, respectable man in the State, doubted the loyalty of Messrs. Hawkins, Whitford, Powell, Webb and Mordecai, at the time of their removal. They were all firm friends of the President and his policy at the time, and continue so to this day, while Mr. Holden, Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Thomas, if not Mr. Lassiter, (whose present position we do not understand,) have abandoned the President and are doing all they can to spread Radicalism in the State.

Messrs. Hawkins, Whitford, Powell, Webb and Mordecai were arbitrarily removed by Mr. Holden without any good cause and against the wishes of the Stockholders. Good, honest, Union people, men, women and orphans, who owned the stock in the Railroads and Bank, were not permitted to have a voice in saying who should manage their property, but Mr. Holden, because he had the power to degrade and injure men who were offensive to him, because he could not control or use them, forced them from their positions, tyrannically demanded that they should be put out, to make room for his favorites, Messrs. Lassiter, Thomas, Boyden, Caldwell, and Moore, against the known wishes and remonstrances of the Stockholders. Most of these pet friends of his have followed Mr. Holden and his faction to the present day.

So far as we know, Mr. Boyden was the only one of the number who did not desire the appointment, and would not seek a re-appointment. In this matter Mr. Boyden has proved true to himself, true to the President and the country. He is a true conservative and a devoted Johnson-Worth man.

What did Gov. Worth do? He consulted, as far as he could ascertain them, the wishes of the Stockholders. He knew that the personal owners of the Stock, to the safety of which they had given close attention, were better judges of the proper persons to manage it than himself. Messrs. Hawkins, Whitford, Webb and Mordecai were re-elected by the Stockholders, and Governor Worth appointed Directors whom he believed would aid in the election of those officers whom a majority of the Stockholders preferred. The selections fell upon those very gentlemen whom Mr. Holden had proscribed for no other reason than for "their opinions."—They were all known to be superior, for the positions to which they were appointed, to the appointees of Mr. Holden. The Stockholders are glad of their re-instatement, and we rejoice that Holdenites were put out, and good, sound, competent Johnson-Worth men put in. They were re-elected by large majorities. Mr. Mordecai received the unanimous vote—every voter present casting his vote for him.

Mr. Holden may prate about it, but it does no good. He talks about "proscription for opinion's sake!" Does he suppose the people of North Carolina are demented? Does he think to make capital by this cry, when everybody knows that he is the most unrelenting, the most undoubted, partizan proscriptionist in North Carolina?

RADICALISM is run mad. No one can read the accounts of the doings in Philadelphia, during the sittings of the recent mulatto Convention, or the incidents attending the President's progress, without being convinced that the tendency to lawlessness and anarchy at the North is growing every day to an extent which portends civil war there, unless some change is speedily wrought in the state of affairs. Mobism appears to pervade its political, as crime does its social, organization. Some of the more recent popular demonstrations remind one forcibly of the insane and ferocious riotings of the rabble during the French reign of terror. The Southern people have been heretofore considered an excitable race, but there has never been, and we trust there never may be, in the South, anything like the turbulence, the malignity, the unchained passion, that are daily manifesting themselves in the North and West. And all this is to be let loose upon us, in its wild fury, unless the conservative sentiment of the whole country arrays itself promptly on the side of the President, who has thus far, almost single-handed and alone, breasted the angry tide.—And yet there are men, born among us, and raised among us, though not of us, who are for tearing down that break water and letting the tumultuous waves in upon our heads!

D. R. Goodloe, Esq.

We have received from D. R. Goodloe, Esq., of Washington city, who assumed to represent the State of North Carolina, in part, in the late Brownlow Convention, a copy of the Philadelphia Press, of the 8th. inst., with certain passages marked, as giving an authentic detail of his course in that body. From this paper we gather the follow facts, which we condense, as we have no disposition to do Mr. Goodloe injustice.

Mr. Goodloe's name is attached to the first Address issued by the Convention proper, an abstract of which we have given heretofore.—That Address abounds in violent denunciation of the President, the most unscrupulous misrepresentations of the South, and the most violent suggestions of disfranchisement and degradation, but evades the question of immediate negro enfranchisement, evidently on grounds ot party expediency and policy.—It became manifest in the Convention, while there was no objection to forcing negro equality upon the South, that public sentiment at the North was not ripe for its inauguration there.

The border States having retired in disgust, on account of the determination of the bogus Southern delegates, of the degraded Brownlow-Hamilton stripe, to force immediate colored suffrage as an issue before the country, the latter also issued an address, taking unqualified grounds in favor of that debasing and iniquitous measure. This Address Mr. Goodloe, and Messrs. Jones, Furniss, Wynne and Baine, who professed to represent North Corolina, declined to sign. Why? Because they were not friendly to negro suffrage? By no means; but because they pretended that, under President Johnson's administration, it could not be enforced. But let Mr. Goodloe tell the story for himself and his illustrious confreres:

"Mr. Daniel R. Goodloe, of North Carolina, said: I agree in all that is stated in the address in regard to the wrongs and outrages that have been inflicted on Union men in the South, but I dissent from the concluding paragraph, in which Congress is called upon to enfranchise the colored people. I am in favor of impartial suffrage, and have recently published a letter to that effect in the Raleigh Standard; but under the present Administration in power, I believe that the extension of suffrage to the colored people by act of Congress would make their condition, and the condition of the loyal whites, worse rather than better.

Mr. Goodloe was here called to order by General Warmouth, on the ground that he was not speaking to the merits of the question, which was the exclusion of the border States from this meeting.

The point was overruled by the Chair.

Mr. Goodloe resumed. I listened with profound interest yesterday to the eloquent young lady, the eloquent colored man, and the gifted New York editor, who showed the rapid progress of public opinion as it regards the rights of colored people, and I became convinced that we might safely wait a year or two longer, when the whole loyal population of the country will be ready to accept our views.

If large masses of the people of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and Maryland are with us in opposing the policy of the Administration, and in the desire to elect a loyal Congress, why should we repel them by requiring them to accept all our views on this question? Let us agree on the great essential measure of securing an overwhelming majority in Congress of loyal men. I move to strike out the concluding passage of the address relating to suffrage."

And so Messrs. Goodloe, Jones, &c., sacrificed their constituents,—the negroes,—on the altar of party expediency.

By the way, what does Mr. Goodloe know of the "wrongs and outrages" inflicted on Union men in the South, except as he may devour with credulous ears the falsehoods of such creatures as Tourgee, Hamilton and others? Mr. Goodloe, we venture to say, has not spent three months in the South in fifteen years. We had thought better of him. But "evil communications corrupt good manners."

Candidates.

We have published the proceedings of two political meetings in Northampton County, by request. The resolutions of the meeting which nominated Gen. Person for the Senate, and Gen. Ransom and Capt. Stancill for the Commons, had the ring of the right metal. They endorsed the policy of President Johnson and the administration of Gov. Worth, which we deem to be the surest indications of soundness and loyalty to the Constitution and the Union. Whatever opposition may have been felt in Northampton, heretofore, to the political views of these gentlemen or their course in the past, their intelligence, ability and devotion to their native State, and now their unquestionable loyalty and devotion to the policy of President Johnson and the Union, and their characters as gentlemen, entitle them to the confidence and support of the people.

On the other hand, Messrs. Garner, Newsom and Capt. Martin, from what we learn, and from what we know of them, are men of personal worth and enjoy the public confidence.—Yet we are forced to say, that we regret they have consented to be brought out by men, whose recent course and present predilections and teachings force us to identify them with the dangerous Radical movement. If they all stand on the Johnson-Worth platform—if they are unequivocally opposed to the adoption of the Howard Amendment by the next Legislature, and are equally devoted to the President's policy,—we certainly could take no part in the defeat or success of either. But if the nominees of the Calvert-Odom meeting are indifferent to this great issue, or in any wise committed to the Radical platform, or to the interests of the Holden-faction in this State, we hope the people of Northampton will overwhelmingly defeat them. It has been suggested to us, that those who know Messrs. Garner, Newsom and Martin say they cannot endorse the Radical platform. We hope it is so, but the people of Northampton should know the fact. We hope the candidates of the first meeting and the people will hold them to a thorough committal on one side or the other. If they are all right, then the contest will turn upon their personal merits and any side issues they may make. But we warn the people of Northampton to elect no doubtful man upon the great, absorbing issue between the President and the Radicals.

"What has Gov. Worth Done?"

If North Carolina were to-day restored to her full and rightful place in the Union, and Gov. Worth had been the sole instrument of effecting that desirable result, the Standard would find some fault with the manner in which it was accomplished or with the details of the consummation. If Gov. Worth's administration of State affairs was as faultless as human government can be, the Standard would still find some place for censure and hostile criticism, for the simple reason that he defeated Mr. Holden. It is not, therefore, at all surprising,—although nineteen-twentieths of the people of the State heartily approve Gov. Worth's administration,—although his calm, dignified and conciliatory course has commanded almost universal sanction, and has placed the State on high vantage ground with the loyal and conservative masses of the country, with President Johnson at their head,—although he has spent months of unremitting labor in securing to all our people, white and black, the full protection of the laws, and in disabusing the popular mind at the North of the false and calumnious misrepresentations of bad and disappointed men as to the loyalty of the State,—that the Standard should nevertheless lift its impotent arm against him.

It won't do, Mr. Holden. Gov. Worth will be sustained and endorsed, at the polls, by an overwhelming majority of the good and loyal people of North Carolina. They will rebuke Radicalism in a manner that will be "unmistakable" even to the callous perceptions of the Raleigh Standard. Bring out your martyr, gentlemen, and you will soon learn from the people what Gov. Worth has done for the State.

If he had done nothing else for them, their gratitude would be unbounded to him as being the instrument of crushing out Holden "straitsect"-ism in North Carolina last Fall, and thereby saving the State from misrule and from such a deplorable condition of affairs as has afflicted and cursed Tennessee!

THE CITY Council of Nashville have dispatched a pressing invitation to President Johnson to visit that city. In it they say:

"We may add that the people of Nashville and of your own State, Tennessee, most heartily approving the patriotic policy of your administration, and proud of the third President our favored State has given to the American people, would hail with great pleasure an opportunity to greet yourself and distinguished friends to the hospitalities of our city."

We are rejoiced to chronicle the exhibition of so patriotic a spirit in our sister State of Tennessee. Nor would we detract one iota from the honor which the "three Presidents" have reflected upon its great name, or from the credit due it for developing and encouraging their powers and aspirations. But it is still a fact that all three of the distinguished Presidents, Jackson, Polk and Johnson, were born in North Carolina. At least, the two latter certainly were, and it has long been a controverted question whether Gen. Jackson was a native of North or South Carolina.

Does This Mean Revolution?

Read the following account of the disgraceful scenes at Indianapolis and ask: Does not this mean revolution?

THE PRESIDENT AT INDIANAPOLIS—HE IS GROANED AND REVILED, AND FORCED TO RETIRE—RIOT OUTRAGE AND MURDER.

On the President's return from St. Louis he was received all along the route with great enthusiasm until he came to Indianapolis, Indiana. Here, upon being introduced to the crowd by Gen. Meredith, the President attempted to speak, when he was met by groans, "huzzas for Johnson," and cries for Gen. Grant, and some under remarks. He commenced by saying: "Fellow-citizens, [cries for Grant,] it is not my intention [cries of "stop" and "go on"] to make a long speech. If you give me your attention for five minutes. [Cries of "go on," "Stop," "No, no—we want nothing to do with traitors!" "Grant, Grant." Johnson and groans.] I should like to say to this crowd to-night—[cries of "Shut up—we don't want to hear from you;" "Johnson!" "Grant!" "Johnson!" "Grant!" "Grant!"]

The President paused a few moments, and then returned to the balcony.

Hon. David Kilgore went to the portico to try his powers ot persausion and keep order. He said: "For one moment hear——(Cries for order, and groans.) Let me appeal to you citizens of Indianapolis and of Indiana——(The confusion still continued.) Let me appeal to you again——(But the crowd was unrelenting and would not be quiet.)

The gentlemen then retired from the portico, and the excursionists went to their dinner.

The disturbers in the crowd continued to groan and make other disturbing noises. Several disturbances occurred with lamentable results. Pistol shots were fired, by which one man was wounded in the eyes, and another in the leg.

According to the best information attainable, a marshal on horseback was seen riding along the torchlight procession and evidently giving directions, as the men soon thereafter stretched out their ranks. Persons were then observed knocking down with clubs several of the bearers of the transparencies.

One of the transparencies bore the inscription, "Johnson—Welcome the President." The holder of this transparency was thrown down and a shot fired at him. A friend came to his relief and fired at the assailant. At least a dozen or more shots were fired in quick succession. The result is, one man was shot in the heart and several wounded.

The President received a few friends, and retired to bed at an early hour, and the crowd finally dispersed from before the hotel about 10 o'clock, at which time the city was quiet.

A colored girl of 16, a refugee from Alabama, has been kept for two and a half years in a state of slavery in Chicago by Mr. Taylor, half clothed, compelled to saw all the wood, do all the washing, &c., of his family of ten, without pay, to sleep in a cellar, forbidden to go out, frequently beaten, and on one occasion, when she got away, badly whipped.

It was rumored in Boston on Friday, that the President, while on his way from Chicago to St. Louis, had been assassinated. The rumor caused great excitement until contradicted.

J. G. Lindsay, a well known merchant of Yorkville, South Carolina, was killed in Charleston last Friday night by falling accidentally from a third story window of the Mills House.

A mother in Alleghany city, Pa., gave her infant laudanum Monday night, in mistake for Winslow's soothing syrup, and the child died in five hours thereafter.

[Correspondence of the Sentinel.]

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 6, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—In point of familiar acquaintance, this part of North Carolina is as remote from the low country as Texas itself.

This is attributable to the lack of means of transportation. The author of the very agreeable traveller's hand-book, entitled "Mountain Scenery," rather complains that our people visit Saratoga in preference to these Western Counties. The preference grows out of our absolute want of a Railroad through to the Western limit of N. C. Whenever we have such a road, a few visitors one season will easily bring with them double their number the next season; and the grand scenery and healing springs of this great Western District will be appreciated.

This want, it is to be hoped, will not exist many years longer. You are aware that at the last Stockholders' meeting, at Morganton, of which I wrote you from that place, it was stated that a correspondence had been carried on with some of the Cincinnati merchants, who promise to take up a large part of the stock in a road from Morganton, to connect with the great Tennessee line, from Lynchburg Southwest.

It is delightful to see the spirit exhibited on the line of the Western N. C. Railroad, from Salisbury to Morganton, even within the short week of the new regime. In its present weakened condition, it is necessary to economize in every practicable way. The new President, Col. S. McD. Tate, was requested to discharge the duties of Superintendent without additional pay. You may rest assured he is, so far, a model of a President. He is all over the road, seeing personally to its affairs, and driving its interests forward with a zeal that must result in much success.

I was glad to learn from President Tate that the tariff of freights, from Northern ports to Western N. C., have been greatly reduced, which will bring our own State Roads into competition with the Va. and Tenn. Roads. I could give some facts which would show the great importance of this arrangement. I hope our Editors will give publicity to this reduction of charges, so as to turn the tide of transportation through our State instead of around it. New York freights for these Western Counties now comes by Norfolk, Lynchburg and Greenville, Tenn.; from which depot they are carried by horse power to their destinations. But hereafter, Western merchants can have their goods brought through the N. C. Roads at a figure far below former rates.

The uncompleted part of the Western Road next to Morganton is being pushed forward in good style, and is to be finished by Christmas. It is under contract with Messrs. Hunt and Wilson, who are certainly leaving no stone in their route unturned. Mr. Hunt is proprietor of the well-known "Walton House," at Morganton, whose reputation as a hotel keeper leaves very few plates unturned at his well furnished table.

I had never formed a conception of the beauty and resources of these Western Counties until I reached here.

"SWANNANOA GAP."

I crossed the Blue Ridge at the Swannanoa Gap. From the level plateau, on the summit, just as far as the eye can reach, ranges of mountains stretch out in bewildering distances. Just over the Eastern crest, within a hundred yards, is the spring that forms the head waters of the Catawba river. And hardly two hundred yards distant, on the Western slope, is the spring that forms the commencement of the Swannanoa river.

A hotel situated on the Ridge, in this Gap, would be a delightful resting place for the tourist. It would be in the centre of a large number of most desirable views, not the least of which is the famous Black mountain, the highest point East of the Rocky mountains, and the spot where the remains of Rev. Prof. Elisha Mitchell, D. D., lie buried.

The route of the Railroad to Tennessee, through Asheville, will cross the Blue mountains at this point.

"THE SWANNANOA."

Descending the Western slope of the Blue mountains, you soon find yourself driving along the Swannanoa, translated by a Charleston poet "Nymph of Beauty." It is a pretty stream, but like other streams, it gets muddy, and has its rough rocky fords, that reduce its poetry down to hard tugging.

"SANG."

On the road I met a man with a little one horse waggon, jogging for the mountains. I asked if he was going "over the Ridge." Oh no, said he, I am only hunting "Sang." I found on enquiring that he meant "Ginseng." I was amazed to find that hundreds of thousands of pounds of Ginseng are annually dug from the mountains and exported to China, where it is used by the Chinese in lieu of tobacco. Many a man has become rich on this "sang" trade.—Other roots, mostly medical, are dug and exported to the cities; the Seneca and a variety of others. But the Ginseng is, by far, the most important. It blooms about September 1st., and is dug from that time until about the first frost, say September 18th., after which it cannot be gotten. It is about six inches long and half an inch in diameter.

"THE STATE OF BUNCOMBE."

Buncombe County reminds me more than any other part of the South I have ever seen, of the fertile Valley of the Shenandoah, in Virginia. The fat cows, fine grasses, young horses, yellow butter, and mountain scenery, recall many a vision of "the Valley," before the war.

This is the locality of the dairy farm now in progress by Prof. Kimberly and Mr. Everhardt.

Land varies in price, owing to the great difference between level and mountain land; the former, being scarce, is very high. But sixty bushels of corn to the acre is, I learn, no great things here. There are fortunes here for the sheep grower.

"ASHEVILLE"

Lies properly in a great basin, or valley, surrounded by mountains. It is near the French Broad. It appears to be sixty miles from almost anywhere. It is sixty miles from Morganton, sixty from Greenville, Tenn., and the same from Greenville, S. C. It is now joined to the other parts of the country only by stage lines. The line from Morganton has been opened, and under contract of Mr. Thos. White, an accommodating man, and he furnishes a comfortable transportation. At present he runs but a semi-weekly stage and mail, leaving Morganton on Tuesdays and Saturdays. He is arranging to apply for a tri-weekly mail, after which he intends to herald to the country the facts of his line. I told him the Sentinel was his very paper, for it goes everywhere. You may expect to hear from him soon.

The stage line is now open from Greenville to Greenville, through this place.

GENS. MARTIN AND VANCE.

This is the old home of Gen. R. B. Vance, and the new home of Gen. Jas. G. Martin; the former is merchandizing, the latter legalizing, both with a devotion that indicate that they have no idea of renewing an attack upon the celebrated "American Eagle." Indeed, this seems to be the conclusion of most of our people, the only desire being that this old bird shall resume her old plumage.

ENERGY.

I am delighted with the element of energy, that forms the character of these Western people, especially these Ashevillians. There is a field for their industry, but they seem up to every emergency.

PROF. KERR.

Our indefatigable State Geologist is driving his chisel into the hills of Jackson and Cherokee, and is heard from at times, as the traveller comes in. Every reports represents him hard at work. He is a man of great attainments and indomitable perseverance. He is a graduate of our own State University, and not an imported pupil of science. North Carolina should be proud of all such men.

It is often asserted that our Western Counties are rich in minerals. Let them be tested and made known to the world. His survey is too limited; he needs half-a-dozen associates, in Botany, etc.

Prof. K. has a most complete set of apparatus for his immediate survey; among other things a chronometer used by Dr. Kane, in his Arctic expedition. It is of great use in determining the altitudes of hills and mountains.—A good work has been begun, only let it be expanded. We have the material, and we have the men to find it.

I hope soon to overtake Prof. Kerr again, on the road to Cherokee, and if any items turn up on my journey, your will hear from me further West. Yours, ITINERANT.

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

WILSON FEMALE SEMINARY,

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

JOSHUA BARNES, President.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Sept. 13, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See announcement of the sale of the valuable property and machinery of the Gorgas Mining and Manufacturing Company, on Deep River. This is one of the most eligible pieces of property in the South, and affords a rare field for enterprise.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., make a number of attractive announcements, to which we refer the public.

Conant & Hunter, General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, will supply bagging and rope, to be paid for in cotton this fall.

J. Steenbock & Co., (late of San Antonio, Texas,) 1213 and 1215 Main St., Richmond, are opening a splendid Fall Stock of Staple and Fancy dry goods, notions, &c., which they offer, on most accommodating terms, to Dealers in the South and South West.

W. N. H. Smith, Esq., gives notice of application for an order directing the transfer to him of certain stock of the corporation of Norfolk belonging to his testator.

James M. Towles, Agent, calls attention to his supply of fertilizers, lime, &c.

L. E. Heartt, Agent, one of our oldest and best Merchants, announces his Fall importation of new, fresh and desirable goods. Give him a call.

OUTRAGE BY A NEGRO.—We learn that a most atrocious outrage was committed in this city, last evening, by a negro man, whose name we have not yet been able to learn. It seems that this fellow went to the residence of Mr. Hughes, a worthy citizen residing in the Western Ward, for the purpose of getting the family clothing, for the week's washing, which his wife was hired to do. On being told to go to the back door to get it, the insolent scoundrel took umbrage at the affront, and not only abused Mr. Hughes' wife violently, but actually struck her several blows, and then ran off. Mr. H. was absent at the time. If the rascal should be caught, he should be summarily and severely punished.

THE LADIES SEWING SOCIETY of Raleigh is an auxiliary to the Memorial Association. The following are its officers:

President.—Mrs. H. S. Smith.

Secretary and Treasurer.—Miss Annie Devereux.

Directre ses.—Mrs. J. M. Atkinson, Mrs. T. H. Selby, Mrs. P. F. Pescud, Miss Devereux, Miss Annie Lawrence, and Miss Julia Hutchings.—Some vacancies to be filled.

Meetings are held every Wednesday morning at the Supreme Court Room in the Capitol.

The Ladies of the Society are now engaged on a praise-worthy scheme, which will be announced in due time, in furtherance of the patriotic objects of the Memorial Association. It may truly be said of our fair country-women that they never tire in a good and pious work.

THE OLD GUION HOTEL.—We are pleased to announce that this property, which has been used and considerably damaged by the Freedmen's Bureau for eighteen months, has at length been turned over to the proper owners—the Trustees of the Baptist Female College.

LAW COPARTNERSHIP.—Col. C. A. Cilley, late Adjutant General of this Department, has entered into a legal co-partnership with Col. Geo. N. Folk, late of the C. S. A., of Lenoir, Caldwell Co.

THE RAILROAD COLLISION.—We were not entirely accurate in our yesterday's account of the unfortunate collision on the North Carolina Railroad. It seems that it took place near Harrisburg, between the Freight train, bound East, and a gravel train. Two of the killed were white men, and the other a freedman. One of the former lived near Salisbury, and the other was an Irishman named Cooley.

Mr. Lewis, engineer of the gravel train, had his leg taken off above the knee, and is otherwise severely injured. Several others were more or less injured.

The cause of the accident is said to be that the freight train was somewhat behind time, and the Conductor of the Gravel train thought it had passed, and went out to work, and in the darkness collided, with the results above stated.

COMMITTED.—A negro by the name of Jefferson Miller, charged with having set fire to the house of Maj. Turner, of Salisbury, on the 26th. ult., has been committed to jail in that town, to await his trial at the next term of Rowan Superior Court. The evidence against him is circumstantial and very strong.

CRAVEN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—This Society, we are pleased to see, has been re-organized, and its name changed to the "Craven Agricultural and Wine-growing Association."—W. B. Wadsworth, Esq., is President; F. P. Latham, Col. H. T. Guion and Col. S. S. Biddle, Vice Presidents; W. H. Oliver and Saml. Whitehurst, Secretaries; and T. J. Mitchell, Treasurer.

BENJ. T. HART, Esq., has been elected, by the County Court of Edgecombe, Sheriff of that County, vice Jos. Cobb, resigned.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Goldsboro News suggests the erection, in St. Stephen's Church, (Episcopal) of that place, of a mural tablet in memory of the late Fred. Fitzgerald, who was long the beloved and efficient pastor of that church.

The following excellent ticket for the next Legislature was unanimously nominated:

For the Senate: Col. E. D. Hall; for the House of Commons: Col. R. H. Cowan and Maj. C. W. McClammy.

Warmly-applauded speeches were delivered by Capt. Robinson, Julious W. Wright, Esq., and others.

CRAVEN COUNTY.—One of the largest and most intelligent Conventions of the people ever held in Craven County assembled in Newbern, on Tuesday.

Jos. J. Roberson, Esq., presided; Stephen G. Barrington, Maj. Jno. Hughes, Jno. D. Flanner, H. Brinson, and Jno. H. Nelson were vice-Presidents; and Capt. Jas. Lane and Jno. Spelman acted as Secretaries.

Hon. M. E. Manly was unanimously nominated for the Senate of the next Legislature, and Alexander C. Latham and Saml. W. Chadwick for the House of Commons. The two former gentlemen, being present, accepted the nominations thus flatteringly tendered.

The Commercial says:

"The meeting was composed exclusively of Johnson-Worth men, and so unanimous were the people present that it was deemed unnecessary to make any further professions, or to follow the hacknied practice of issuing a platform of principles—which nine times out of ten are meant only to deceive—like that issued by the Radicals of Newbern."

NEW HANOVER COUNTY.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Johnson-Worth conservatives of New Hanover was held in Wilmington on yesterday. Dr. H. L. Murphy presided and Capt. Benj. Robinson and Col. Jno. L. Cantwell were appointed Secretaries.

AS A PROOF of the extreme morality of Weldon, the State says that there are only eight drinking saloons in the "city," which are "doing a paying business."

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, September 10, 1866.

GOVERNOR WELLS AND HIS MILITIA.

Advices from New Orleans represent that Governor Wells did not succeed very well in raising his mixed militia and that both it and the election he had ordered to fill "the vacancies in the Convention of '64" were failures. Perhaps it is well that his efforts terminated thus, as a persistence in them could only result in a renewal of bad feeling.

THE NEW ORLEANS RUMORS.

There are various rumors in circulation said to be telegraphic from New Orleans, with reference to further interference in the functions of the civil authorities by the military, but so far as I can learn, they are wholly without foundation. Certain it is, no orders have gone from the President authorizing a transfer of the muncipal keys to Gen. Sheridan, and it is not likely that the War Department has take any such responsibility in the President's absence.

JUDGE HOLT AND MONTGOMERY BLAIR.

There is talk of a suit for defamation of character, to be brought by Judge Advocate Holt against Montgomery Blair who asserted in a recent speech that he (Holt) was guilty of the execution of an "innocent woman," meaning Mrs. Surratt.

IMPORTANT FROM MISSOURI.

I hear that General Hancock has received instructions to see that the Conservative voters in Missouri have full protection in the exercise of their rights of franchise, and any interference therewith, from whatever quarter, will be apt to meet a summary check. In addition to the above, information has been received going to show that the Conservatives are taking their protection into their own hands, and, as their opponents are acting in like manner, the fear is almost general that a conflict will be the result.

Meeting of the Justices of Union County—Resolution in Reference to the Sad Condition of the People Caused by the Drought, etc.

At a meeting of the Justices of Union County, on Saturday, the 1st of September, 1866, called for the purpose of considering the condition of the people, and of devising some mode for the relief of the destitute, it was

1st. Resolved, That the almost entire failure of the crops in consequence of the protracted drought, following so soon after the severe scourging suffered by this county from the march through it of large portions of both armies, presents the gloomy prospect of great suffering, if not of starvation, to many of our citizens.

2d. Resolved, That the most fortunate of our people will find the strictest economy necessary to enable them to pass safely through the trying ordeal before them, and that they will be unable to do much, if anything at all, for the more needy.

3d. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Governor of the State, respectfully requesting him to take such measures as he may think best calculated to prevent, or at least to mitigate, the sad condition of things herein contemplated.

4th. Resolved, That the Democrat, Weekly News, Sentinel, and Wadesboro' Argus, be requested to publish the above proceedings.

F. L. WIATT, Chm'n Co. C't.
J. E. IRBY, Clerk.

Maine Election.

The election held in Maine on Monday for Governor, State officers and members of Congress resulted increased majorities of the republicans.

Returns from 32 towns give Chamberlains republican, for Governor, 13,266, and Pillsbury, Democrat, 7,525—republican majority 5,741—a nett republican gain of 1,464 over the majority of last year. They have also carried all the congressional districts, thus far heard from, by increased majorities.

COLORED DELEGATES TO THE PHILADELPHIA RADICAL CONVENTION ARRESTED.—Two colored men, respectively named Charles Washington and John Harris, have been arrested at Plainfield, N. J., charged with the trifling offence of stopping on their way through the town, and breaking open and robbing a dry good store of goods valued at $200. The prisoners were committed to the Union County jail for trial. Upon their persons were found documents regularly accrediting them as delegates to the Radical Convention now in session at Philadelphia.—N. Y. Express.

A duel was fought at Little Rock, Arkansas, on Thursday morning last, between Walter Coggswell, postmaster at Wayne, and J. T. Wright, Editor of the Wayne Gazette. Their weapons were swords—the cause, jealousy. Both were frightfully mangled, having fought until the loss of blood caused them to faint. Both will die.

There are already more than seventy applicants for the Boston Collectorship, left vacant by the resignation of Hannibal Hamlin.

Brigham Young, in a recent sermon of his, exhibited a bowie knife, and declared that to be his law. He was very severe on Congress.

Conservative Nominations in New York.

ALBANY, Sept. 12, P. M.

John T. Hoffman, Democrat, Mayor of New York, has been nominated for Governor, and R. H. Pruyn, of Albany, conservative Republican, for Lieut. Governor.

The platform of the conservative Convention endorses the Philadelphia Convention of the 14th. of August, declares the Southern States in the Union and entitled to representation in Congress, affirms that the centralization of power, both in Washington and New York State, fatal to the harmony of our political system, and denounces the Congressional Legislation.

Gen. Grant in Cincinnati---A Significant Rebuke.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 12, P. M.

Gen. Grant visited Wood's Theatre last night, where he was enthusiastically received. During the performance, a crowd, among whom were several soldiers, paraded before the Theatre, and Eggleston, member of Congress, requested the manager to go and inform Gen. Grant that the crowd wished to see him. Gen Grant replied, "I cannot and will not see them. Please tell the commander of the soldiers to come and see me."

Baker, the commander of the soldiers, with some others, marched into the theatre to the private box of Gen. Grant, who, without giving Baker time to make his wishes known, approached him and said "Sir, I am no politician; the President is my Commander-in-Chief. I consider this demonstration in opposition to the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson. You will please take them away; I am greatly annoyed at this demonstration. I will be glad to see you to-morrow when the President arrives." The crowd finally dispersed, cheering Gen. Grant as the next President of the United States.

A Toronto special says that Canadian papers urge that the U. S. government is responsible for the Fenian troubles, and demand that England should declare war if they are not suppressed.

A Chicago special says a Convention of National Banks of the Northwest have passed resolutions disapproving Mr. Hooper's amendment offered in Congress, requiring the Banks to redeem their currency in New York, Philadelphia and Boston; also to co-operate with parties in the East to have Judge Nelson's decision regarding taxing of stocks reversed.

Rio Janerio correspondence of the 8th. says that the allies are still in a morass, under the guns of the enemy, unable to advance or withdraw. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER, Notary Public, Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS, 116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY, New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.
